February 21st – March 21st

This year's Lenten program invites participants to explore the 2011 Pastoral Letter from the House of Bishops that focused on the environment. Their letter is a call to action, repentance, newness of life, and hope for all creation. Over five nights, we will explore the letter itself, major themes that come from it, scripture that connects and deepens our understandings, and contemplate how we can move our own lives and the life of our community to be more in tune with the beautiful gift that is God's creation.

Led by Father Matthew, who's doctoral studies in part investigated the connection between the church and the environment, these five nights are sure to be an opportunity for challenge and for grace.

Each evening is self-contained, so missing one or more is not a problem. Please sign up if you intent to attend any or all of the classes.

Thursday Noon, soup lunch follows

February 15th – March 22nd
All held at First United Methodist Church
200 Market Street
